The trio ended up attacking each other when the Minitron jumped from Autobot, then headed for Grimlock, where it immediately threw itself into a wall and was knocked unconscious instead of being crushed by the DINOBOT. Bumblebee and his new crime partner SPARMARM were chasing Sideswipe on Cybertron. After escaping the bomb that brought them in, the team tracked the bulkhead in time to chase Starscream and some vehicles. In Rumble in the jungle, Bumblebee let Strongarm be a solo mission, but then followed her anyway to her dismay, They brought the fugitive to the wretch after they all escaped from the exploiting ship. Upon arrival, they discovered that the mad scientist vertebreak had kidnapped Sideswipe's body. You see again that Grimlock was flattened. And the generator was gone. When Strongarm felt particularly out of place on earth, Bumblebee told her about her first time on the planet, hoping to cheer her up. The team finally TR Acked Chop Shop to their hideout where they opened up Sideswipe, Strongarm and was about to finish that Bumblebee, but Bumblebee, and its ability to transform restored. When they downloaded a map from the Shockwave lab network, they were received by the Megatron owned by Unicron. [Silence] See, 'Wreck' because the shipwrecks girded, and then I was like because the shipwrecks girded, and the shipwrecks girded the shipwr Bumblebee was forced to sit out the subsequent road race mission to defeat the Stunticons. When his team felt homesick for Cybertron, Bumblebee tried to take the team on a vacation in Ghosts and Impostors. In Trust Exercises, Bumblebee, who was carried by Grimlock after their trust exercise, stopped Sideswipe and Strongarm from fighting. When Scorponok had the upper hand over Grimlock, Bumblebee seemingly surrendered and played a trick on the Deceptions with a rock as he claimed Steeljaw was after Earth's "magic". Drift had also arrived on Earth to collect the bounty on Bumblebee and engaged Fracture. In Transformers: Robots in Disguise, Bumblebee is far more serious and mature, despite his fame as a war hero and despite being a high ranking police officer, he is a humble peacekeeper, just like in Predacons Rising. A trail laid out for me by Optimus Prime." - Bumblebee to Strongarm and Sideswipe. "But we needed your help Optimus. Later at night, the Autobots planned to lure Ped into a trap with some of Denny's paint colored blue boxes but they ended up being momentarily trapped in a hole until they were able to get out by Denny's electromagnet. With the warship under their command, the Autobots flew it to Cybertron to use the Omega Lock to restore Cybertron. He will return in the sequel in 2015 as the main protagonist. As it turned out, Overload and the Mini-Cons were together as they were smashing up a trailer outside of Crown City with screaming humans inside. Bumblebee was desperate for the leadership of Ultra Magnus, but Ratchet told him that in the past all the other autobots had

While Denny and Russell distracted the Decepticons, Bumblebee and Drift built a catapult and released Slipstream and Jetstorm to scrapping. Here. "- Bumblebee is not convincing in Rumble in The Jungle. They almost escape from a trap held by Grimlock who had used a cryinductor." Ok, Autobots. They captured with Hammerstrike and returned to the base where Bumblebee praised Sideswipe and Strongarm for working together against Steeljaw. He and Optimus ended up having to fight a lot of them and won. Later, Bumblebee worked learning patience of Brother Gunter. Despite the resistance of Starscream and the army of him, the two came to the decision of Optimus to separate the group to make them more difficult to find, he questioned how two would be able to contact the others. After finding enough scralets, they returned to the control room, where another mass of them overwhelmed Bumblebee, Bulkhead and Ratchet. Pseudo managed to escape again, but Bumblebee and the team persecuted him and captured him. Arcee has given up that Bumblebee

Bumblebee and Arcee were introduced to Vogel. Bumblebee was reunited with the all of Team Prime back at their new base where Agent Fowler praised them. He also maintained a video diary (exercise video) for a time as shown in History Lessons. Bumblebee and Sideswipe then head off to find that the humans were constructing a space bridge Bumblebee ordered Strongarm to take Sideswipe to the station while he investigates at the Cybertron History Museum. In the subway, they ran into Knock Out and an Insecticon, the latter of which temporarily floored Bumblebee. The Autobots subsequently found the Omega Lock, only for the Decepticons to unveil their trump card in the form of the three kids as hostages. While Megatron had his back turned, Bumblebee got to bust out some more dance moves. He prepared to shoot Bee but was knocked back into the shadowzone along with Laserbeak who was thrown in by Grimlock. The relic turned out to be a phase shifter, which left Sideswipe to believe he was useless to the team. I just forgot to give you something before you left. After he defeated the Autobot, Megatron set his sights on Bumblebee. On some occasions, Bumblebee fell out of control on a cliff. Bumblebee finally got his desire to go from Scout to Warrior in Cybertron in Predacons Rising. Many fans believe that the real reason why Bumblebee can not speak over most of this series, it is because the creators of this series could not find the perfect voice actor for him to the end of the series however, some believe it may have been because their previous incarnations were too annoying. After the Decepticons on Decepticon Island they were all with the Stasis, Optimus and Bumblebee makeup as Optimus advises Bumblebee to never hesitate as herself since he really became a leader. However, Ratchet was simply able to get a screen capture from the cure and ordered Arcee to disconnect Bumblebee. Arcee ran quickly to patrol, leading Bumblebee with her and leaving Bulkhead in charge of her. When a wounded Steeljaw appeared in the scrap deposit, Bumblebee, Strongarm and Grimlock followed the trail of energy that he had left in a unity in disuse. He offers to make a deal with the couple and let them have something of the criminal empire if they help him return to Cybertron but Bumblebee is naturally inflexible, although Sideswipe actually seems to consider it a good idea. And just like that of him of him's cinema (at least in the first live action film), Bumblebee and Raf danced The Robot to the guitar of Miko playing. Raf concluded that while the two were almost trapped, the recent Bumblebee painting work change saved both.
